The Prince of Peace

A few years ago I had the opportunity to go to the Holy Land. It was January, and it was cold, wet, and windy! Some of the sites we visited were in Israel; others in the West Bank - including Bethlehem and the Church of the Nativity. It was stunningly beautiful, and the Christmas tree in the square outside made it particularly festive. Yet not too far from the Church of the Nativity is 'The Wall' - the large, imposing, concrete wall, that separates The West Bank from Israel.

Jesus was born into a land of turbulence, political unrest, and violence. Just next door to the Church of the Nativity is the Church of the Holy Innocents - the church that honours the children who were killed when Herod found out that a 'rival' king had been born there. Jesus stepped right in to the messiness of people - into the tragedy of what humans can inflict on each other.

The chances are that, at some point over the festive period, you will hear Handel's 'Unto us a child is born.' Written in 1741, it has been a pretty firm fixture in the build up to Christmas ever since. Here are the lyrics:

For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given;
And the government shall be upon His shoulder;
And His name shall be called
Wonderful, Counsellor,
The Mighty God, the Everlasting Father,
The Prince of Peace.

It comes from the words of the Prophet Isaiah, in the Old Testament (Isaiah 9:6) - who wrote his prophecies hundreds of years before Jesus' birth. Writing in a time of great uncertainty and upheaval himself, Isaiah writes of a Messiah, a saviour - someone who will show, by example, how we can live in love and peace with one another and with God.

Two thousand years after Jesus' birth, our world is still in desperate need of that peace - not least in the very land where he lived.

He showed us, in his life and teaching, that peace is a costly thing. Costly to ourselves, because it requires us to put the needs of others above our own. It means treating others with love and kindness - especially those whom we may not even like!

We ourselves may not be in a position to solve the crisis currently engulfing the people of Israel and Gaza; we may not be able to stop the war in Ukraine, or indeed any of the other conflicts currently taking place across the world - but we can pray. We can pray for world leaders, politicians, military leaders, diplomats, etc., that peace can be found. We can give to charities and organisations who are helping and supporting those caught up in war and conflicts, and we can pray that, following the example of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, we can, in our own communities, be people of peace to each other this Christmas.

Revd Jacqui Pearson

And there were shepherds...

Luke's story of the birth of Jesus is brilliantly told – the angel's visit to Mary to tell her she would be mother of the long-promised Messiah, the old priest in the Temple told by another angel that his wife would have a son to be called 'John', who would prepare the people of Israel for that event, and then Mary and Joseph making the 60 mile journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem, as required by the Roman census. When they got there, no room at the inn, and they settled instead for a convenient stable, where Mary gave birth to a boy child.

Suddenly, Luke changes the tone. 'And there were shepherds ...' – that's what he actually wrote, just like that. 'And there were shepherds', doing exactly what shepherds do, looking after their flocks by night. But this night was different: yet another angelic message – a call to abandon their sheep and go into Bethlehem to see the baby Messiah. They were given directions and a 'sign' to identify Him. He would be lying in a feeding trough. Well, at least they would recognise that.

And why the shepherds, in this glorious story of our salvation? Because the event needed witnesses, and the chosen witnesses would be this bunch of scruffy, smelly shepherds straight from the sheep-pen. Nothing could speak more eloquently of God's purpose than that. This was not a Saviour for the strong, rich and powerful, but for everybody. The carpenter and his wife guarded the Saviour of the world, and the very first witnesses were not kings or priests but a handful of shabby shepherds.

St Margaret's Downham

Remembrance Sunday

We were pleased to welcome Councillor Kevin Black, Chairman of South Hanningfield Parish Council who laid wreaths at the war memorial and war grave at the start of our service on Sunday 12 November. Many members of the congregation braved the rain to join in the ceremony. The lytch gate provided shelter for those without umbrellas.

Christmas Bazaar

Don't forget our Christmas Bazaar on Saturday 2 December. See page 4 for more details.

New nativity set

As we approach the Christmas season, we will be introducing the representation of the nativity scene in front of the altar. You may notice it being somewhat different this year. The figures in the stable that we have used for many years were looking somewhat tired. Shepherds with fingers missing, wise men having lost their presents en route to Bethlehem.

At its recent meeting, the Parochial Church Council decided to purchase a new set of figures. They are a more diverse ethnic mix, representing the people who live in the Middle East. There are more animals, with a selection of sheep, an ass and each wise man having his own camel. There is real gold, frankincense and myrrh in the wise men's boxes (for this year at least). The baby Jesus is tiny as we might expect, being a new born child.

Do take an opportunity to come up to the altar and take a closer look at the stable. We are sure that children visiting the church during the Christmas season will be fascinated by the scene.

Christmas services

Our Christmas services commence on Sunday 17 December when we will be singing carols during the Benefice Communion Service. Our ever popular Christingle service will be at 3.00pm on Saturday 23 December. As Christmas Eve is a Sunday this year there will be a short said Communion service at 11.00am, then our Midnight Mass will commence at 11.30pm. There will be a service of Holy Communion at 10.00am on Christmas Day. We have no services at Downham on Sunday 31 December, but there will be a Benefice Communion Service at South Hanningfield at 10.00am.

See page 3 for details of Christmas services across the benefice.

Downham WI

Hopefully most of you went through Downham in November and saw our WI knitted poppies on display. Despite the wind and rain the poppies stood firm. It was good to hear from the members how well received they were. Well done ladies once again!!

The Tuesday Club has its last get together on 5 December. It will reconvene on 9 January 2024.

We are all looking forward to our Christmas lunch and festivities on 12 December. Much fun and laughter was had last year and we are fully expecting the same again.

At the time of writing we have not had our November meeting (21st) but we are looking forward to hearing our speaker, Maggie Piper who will be talking on "Essex Curiosities".

The new WhatsApp group for members has proved to be a great success with most members now on board.

If you would like to join our friendly group then come along on the third Tuesday of each month.

It just leaves me to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Remembrance Sunday

Despite the wet weather on Remembrance Sunday a good number of people from the village and the congregations from the Baptist Church and St Mary's filled the village hall.

The cubs led the congregation to the war memorial for the reading of the names of the fallen in the two world wars followed by the 2 minutes silence.

The service then continued in the village hall lead by the Revd James Hamilton from the Baptist Church and the Revd Jean Andrews from St Mary's. The proceeds of the collection were sent to Blesma (British limbless ex service men's association)

Community Cuppa & Cake afternoon

Tuesday 5 December 1.45 - 4.00pm

Ramsden Heath Village Hall
Dowsetts Lane CM11 1HX

Thank you so much to all our 'customers' who came along to our Coffee Afternoon on 14 November. It was an awful day with pouring rain and some flooding. but so many turned up that we have managed to raise £100 to donate to the Poppy Appeal at the British Legion in Wickford, plus £50 to carry over to our December charities. We have picked two charities for December. The Aspire Community Cafe which is held at The Downtowner Youth Centre, Irvon Hill Road, Wickford SS12 0AQ Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday 10.30am - 2.30pm. This is for students with learning difficulties to gain invaluable hands-on experience in a real world work setting. The other is TLC Teddies for Loving Care which donates teddies to seriously ill children in Essex hospitals.

Our December Coffee morning is always a week earlier than usual so that we can invite the Choir from Downham School to get us all in the mood for Christmas with their lovely singing. We will start our Coffee afternoon a bit earlier at 1.45pm. The children will be coming at 2.30 but you are more than welcome to creep in while they are singing. When the Coffee Afternoon finishes at 4.00pm for those who can stay we will make our way outside and light up the Christmas tree with a few carols.

Can we take this opportunity to thank you all for your support over the year and wish you all a very Happy Christmas and a very Healthy New Year.

Best wishes

Ramsden Heath Horticultural & Allotment Society

On Wednesday 1 November we were entertained by the Mayflower Morris Men who performed a number of sets as well as giving us a potted history of Morris Dancing. There was also the opportunity for our members to take part, fortunately without the bells and sticks. A great evening was enjoyed by all.

Our last event of the year is our eagerly awaited Christmas Party which will be held on Wednesday 13 December, 7.30pm at Ramsden Heath Village Hall.

The price for the evening is £15 per person (members only) and if you haven't yet ordered your tickets, please telephone Trevor Elcock on 01268 733283, or email t.elcock@talktalk.net

We look forward to another fun evening with lots of good food and drink and a glass of punch to welcome us in. Please bring your own choice of liquid refreshment, and a glass to drink it from. This year we are being entertained by a professional magician who will hopefully have lots of 'tricks up his sleeve'. This will be followed by the popular '12 days of Christmas' singalong, so be sure to be in good voice to see who can sing the loudest. A great end to our horticultural year.

Please note that from January 2024 our monthly meetings will be taking place on the first Thursday of the month, starting on Thursday 4 January. This will be our usual social get together and 'Bring and Buy' sale, a chance to offload some of those unwanted items cluttering up your cupboards – and then go home with something else.

On behalf of Ramsden Heath Horticultural Society we would like to wish all Herald readers a very merry Christmas and a happy, healthy and peaceful 2024.

South Hanningfield Village Hall

No Parking on Pavement by Hall - South Hanningfield Village Hall Management Committee request that anyone using the hall facilities doesn't park up on the pavement or road outside the building because of the health and safety risks. Neighbouring residents will have seen hi vis volunteers outside the hall supervising parking at our own fundraising events. Unfortunately, recently there have been some private party hirers of the hall where a few of their attendees parked on the pavement. Our booking form clearly states that once the car park is full, they park on the street down Middlemead. The committee have put up signage and strive to use other measures to stop this from happening. Please alert the volunteer committee if you see such vehicles parked in this way outside the hall on 07396 546050 or 07891 653238.

Afternoon Tea Party update This recent charity event at the village hall was very well attended. It was in aid of Teenage Cancer Trust and part of the fundraising for Fleur to run the London Marathon. Fleur thanks her family and friends for all their help with the preparations; everyone who donated a raffle prize; South Hanningfield Village Hall for the use of the facility and everyone who attended the Afternoon Tea Party. Together a fantastic sum of £1,042.52 was raised for this worthy cause.

Happy Christmas from South Hanningfield Village Hall Management Committee

All in the month of December

It was:

800 years ago, on 25 December 1223 that St Francis of Assisi created the first nativity scene, in Greccio, Italy, after visiting Jesus' birthplace in the Holy Land. It proved enormously popular and inspired other communities to stage their own nativity scenes.

250 years ago, on 16 December 1773 that the Boston Tea Party took place in Massachusetts. American patriots boarded ships and threw chests of tea belonging to the British East India Company into Boston Harbour, as a protest against the British tax on tea.

200 years ago, on 23 December 1823 that the poem The Night Before Christmas was first published (anonymously) in the Sentinel newspapers in Troy, New York. It was written by Clement Clarke Moore.

175 years ago – on 19 December 1848 that Emily Bronte, British novelist and poet, died of tuberculosis, aged 30. Best known for her only novel, Wuthering Heights.

100 years ago, on 6 December 1923 that Ramsay MacDonald became the first Labour Prime Minister. The General Election had resulted in a hung parliament, and the Labour Party had formed a coalition with the Liberal Party.

Also 100 years ago, on 31 December 1923 that the BBC broadcast the chimes of Big Ben for the first time, to welcome in the New Year. The tradition continues to this day.

80 years ago, on 22 December 1943 that Beatrix Potter, children's writer and illustrator, died. She created animal characters including Peter Rabbit, Squirrel Nutkin, Mrs Tiggy-Winkle, Jemima Puddle-Duck, and many more.

75 years ago, on 10 December 1948 that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly.

Also 75 years ago, on 24 December 1948 that the first Midnight Mass to be televised was broadcast from St Patrick's Cathedral in New York City.

70 years ago, on 10 December 1953 that former US Secretary of State George Marshall was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for creating the Marshall Plan. The aid package helped Europe rebuild after WW2.

65 years ago, on 5 December 1958 that Britain's first motorway, the Preston By-pass, was officially opened. (It is now part of the M6 and M55.)

60 years ago, on 21 December 1963 that the Daleks made their first appearance on the British science fiction TV series Doctor Who.

50 years ago, on 21 December 1973 that the Geneva Conference opened in Switzerland, aimed at finding a solution to the Arab-Israeli conflict.

No agreement was reached, but Israel signed a military disengagement agreement with both Egypt and Syria in 1974.

40 years ago, on 10 December 1983 that Polish Solidarity leader Lech Walesa was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. (It was accepted by his wife, as he feared he might not be allowed back into Poland if he travelled to Norway to accept it.)

30 years ago, on 10 December 1993 that Monkwearmouth Colliery in Sunderland closed down. It marked the end of more than 800 years of coal mining in the region.

Also 30 years ago, on 30 December 1993 that Israel and the Vatican City agreed to recognise each other and established diplomatic relations.

25 years ago, on 10 December 1998 that the UN General Assembly listed anti-Semitism as a form of racism.

Also 25 years ago, on 10 December 1998 that the Palestine Liberation Organisation voted to remove clauses in its charter that called for Israel's destruction.

20 years ago, on 1 December 2003 that using a handheld mobile phone while driving became illegal in the UK.

Also 20 years ago, on 13 December 2003 that during the Iraq War, former Iraqi President Saddam Hussein was captured by US forces, who found him hiding in a hole at a farmhouse in ad-Dawr, near his hometown of Tikrit.

10 years ago, on 5 December 2013 that Nelson Mandela died. This anti-apartheid revolutionary and politician had become President of South Africa 1994-99. He served as President of the African National Congress (ANC) 1991-97. Winner of the 1993 Nobel Peace Prize.

Follow the Star

Jesus' welcoming committee included Eastern scholars who learned about His birth through their study of astrology. I can't help thinking that the arrival of these people at Bethlehem is a link between a very early form of science (albeit mixed in with their own form of religion) and Christian faith. What better way to discover God than to explore the world and follow the evidence wherever it leads? But what exactly was the star of Bethlehem? Scientists have investigated this question over the centuries, coming up with a variety of answers.

First, there is the idea of a supernova: the massively bright explosion caused by a dying star. On rare occasions a supernova can be seen from Earth with the naked eye, remaining visible for several months. We now know that Herod the Great died around 4BC, so the actual date of Jesus' birth must be a little earlier. The supernovae that might match this timing were one in the Andromeda galaxy between March 8BC and September 7BC, and another in the constellation of Capricorn in the Spring of 5BC.

Next, comes a planetary conjunction. The alignment most commonly associated with the star of Bethlehem was between Jupiter and Saturn in the constellation of Pisces in 7BC, but not everyone is sure whether this would be extraordinary enough to be the 'star' mentioned in the Bible.

Finally, the bright astronomical object that drew the Magi could have been a comet. This idea came from Sir Colin Humphreys, Professor of Materials Science at Cambridge University, and Oxford astronomer WG Waddington, who found that a comet was recorded by Chinese astronomers between March and May, 5BC. Humphreys then speculated that the 'no room at the inn' scenario came about because Jesus was born during Passover, and the Magi visited Jesus in May or June.

People interpret the biblical account of Jesus' birth in all sorts of ways, but there's very little argument from serious historians that Jesus of Nazareth actually existed. Whatever the true explanation for the 'star of Bethlehem' may be, there's plenty of evidence that an astronomical event could have happened at the time of His birth.

I think it makes perfect sense that if God was going to enter His own creation and take on the form of one of His own creatures, it should be marked by a very significant physical event!

What sort of a Christmas card person are you?

The time to send and receive Christmas cards has come round again – time for our annual gasp at the cost of cards, and sheer disbelief at what the Post Office charges to send them.

It seems there are three kinds of people when it comes to Christmas cards: the total abstainers, the total givers, and the selective givers.

Abstainers write 'Happy Christmas everyone' on Facebook, and consider the job well done. Total givers spend a fortune on cards and stamps and send them to everyone they know. Selective givers try to cut corners, but then cannot remember who sent who what, and as the cards pour through their door, spend time worrying...

However you decide to do it, it is good to stay in yearly touch with your widest circle of friends and family. Proverbs points out that: 'Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.' Proverbs 25:25. They will enjoy hearing from you!

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Luke 1: 26-56 & Matthew 1: 18-25

In Israel, about 2000 years ago, a young woman, Mary, was going to marry Joseph. The weddings were in two stages.

In one year we will complete our wedding

Then God's messenger angel came to see Mary.

Don't be afraid!

You will have God's baby, and call him Jesus, 'god saves', because he will save people from what they do wrong.

How can this happen?

With God, nothing is impossible.

Your cousin Elizabeth, who couldn't have children, is now 6 months pregnant.

Mary visited Elizabeth.

When Joseph heard that Mary was pregnant, he was very upset

This will bring shame on me and my family.

He always did what was right so he decided to end their marriage, but quietly.

But the angel came to him in a dream.

Don't be afraid to marry Mary. The baby is God's, and you will call him Jesus.

So Joseph and Mary completed their marriage.

The Everlasting Turkey

On the first day of Christmas my true love said to me

I've bought a big fresh turkey and a proper Christmas tree.

On the second day of Christmas much laughter could be heard

As we tucked into our turkey – a most delicious bird.

On the third day of Christmas people came from just next door,

The turkey tasted just as good as it had done before.

On the fourth day of Christmas came relations young and old

We finished up the Christmas pud and had the turkey cold.

On the fifth day of Christmas, outside the snowflakes scurried,

But we were nice and warm inside, and had the turkey curried.

On the sixth day of Christmas, the Christmas spirit died.

The children fought and bickered – we had the turkey rissoles fried.

On the seventh day of Christmas my true love he did wince

When he sat down at table - and was offered turkey mince.

On the eighth day of Christmas, the dog had run for shelter,

For he'd seen our turkey pancakes and the glass of alka-seltzer.

On the ninth day of Christmas, by lunchtime dad was blotto,

He knew that bird was back again, this time as a risotto.

On the tenth day of Christmas we were drinking home-made brew,

Anything to help us face that steaming turkey stew.

On the eleventh day of Christmas our lovely tree was moulting,

And with chilli, soy and oyster sauce, the turkey was revolting.

On the twelfth day of Christmas we had smiles back on our lips,

The guests had gone, the turkey too – WE DINED ON FISH AND CHIPS.

Children's version of the Christmas story

- When the three wise guys from the east side arrived, they found Jesus in the manger(sic).
- When Mary heard that she was the mother of Jesus, she sang the Magna Carta
- Jesus was born because Mary had an immaculate contraption.

Sums up Christmas

Three phrases that sum up Christmas are: 'Peace on Earth'; 'Goodwill to Men'; and 'Batteries not included'.
